

The Avalanche.

O. PALMER, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1885.

POLITICAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

The penitentiary at Columbus would have to be very much enlarged, if even one-half of those who were guilty of election frauds received their deserved punishment. — Cincinnati Volksblatt.

The democrats, in the election last Tuesday, carried the States of Virginia, New York, and Mississippi. The republicans carried Colorado, Connecticut, Iowa, Massachusetts, Nebraska and Pennsylvania.

Now we wake up to find that some Ohio democrats were actually prohibitionists in disguise. True, it was one of the safest disguises they could assume, but it enforces the good old maxim that we should never trust to appearances. — New Bedford Mercury.

No matter whether in Mississippi or Ohio, in Copiah or Hamilton county, the freedom and purity of the ballot is the only safeguard of popular freedom, and the republican party will oppose any efforts to overthrow or annul the will of the people, no matter by whom attempted. — Blade.

The contributors to the Grant fund, raised several years ago by the efforts of Mr. Geo. Jones, held a meeting in New York and decided to place the fund in the hands of the United States Trust Company, the interest to go to Mrs. Grant during her life, then to her children, and after they are all dead the share of to be distributed to his or her children.

Everybody's potato crop in this county is turning out magnificently. John Morris claims to have dug one potato the past week that weighed 4 lb. 11 and 1-2 ounces. From the same hill he took out another single tuber weighing about 3 lb. with numerous others of a smaller size. This is no fish story, but the truth—just as we received it from Mr. Morris. — Harrisville Review.

President Cleveland has issued a Proclamation designating Thursday, November 25th, as a day of public thanksgiving and prayer. One of his reasons therefor is that we are yet a united nation, which is not the fault of the powers that be, nor in accordance with democratic doctrine, but the greatest is, that he was elected instead of Blaine. Outside of these, we have much to be thankful for, and we trust the day will be generally observed, and in the right manner.

The following is the latest correction in reference to the Webster land sales report of last week: Mr. Webster says he sold a tract of 120 acres of choice pine to L. D. Sanborn for $19,000, and 700 to Salling, Hanson & Co. for $21,000; also 600 acres to Sanborn & Hill for $10,000, and 1,750 acres to the same parties for $55,000, all at an average of $1.50 to $5 stumpage. The timber is mostly in Crawford county. The total consideration of these sales was $105,000.

The leading republican papers of Chicago condemn in the strongest terms the nominations made by the republican county convention. This is the proper thing to do. The republican party cannot afford to allow nominations to be made, and they should be promptly repudiated by the press as the 'generally are by the people at the polls. The Chicago Journal strikes the keynote when it declares that "the only effectual way to maintain the honor and integrity of the republican party is to compel such men who creep into it as are reckless of honor and integrity to take back seats."

The Richmond, Va., Whig alleges that State Senator W. E. Gaines (rep.) while at South Boston, Va., on Tuesday, for the purpose of conferring with republican leaders, was locked in a room by four leading democrats who threateningly insisted on knowing his errand, and who warned him that if he was there to make a speech he would not be permitted. And that if Mr. Wise should attempt to speak he would be thrown into the river. Senator Gaines replied that his errand was lawful and he was unarmed and not prepared to fight. He was finally released, but was warned that any attempt to speak would be at his own risk.

The following article from the Bay City Tribune, regarding the Detroit Tribune, successor of the Post, coincides with our views as closely as if we had written the same ourselves. "The Detroit Tribune, successor to the Post, made its appearance Sunday morning, bright and newsy, and is chock full of good solid reading.

The Tribune has made an excellent beginning, and has an intelligent reading constituency behind it who will push it on to fortune if it merits success. It is solidly republican in fundamental principles, and will advocate those measures which are proven to be necessary to the welfare of the people, the best interests of the state, and the prosperity of the nation. We speak for it the hearty co-operation of the republican press throughout the state."

The Rosecommon News says: "W. R. Johnson, of Garfield township, brought to this office yesterday, a sample of potatoes raised by him this season. The sample was the product of two hills, there were 28 potatoes, which weighed 30 pounds. They were of the Late Rose and Early Peach Blow variety. Mr. J. dug from 21 acres of ground 815 bushels of potatoes, an average of 335 to the acre. Oh, ho, we can't raise anything in Rosecommon county." You can take the bakery, Bro. Ward. Our baker has skeddaddled, and we don't like cake any how.

When the Western Union telegraph operators were up at Grayling on their hunting expedition last week, they met Shopengance, the old Indian guide, who is so well known to lay City sportsmen. Shopengance had heard of Buffalo Bill's west show and the wonderful feats of horsemanship performed by the red men who accompany it, also the fine marksmanship of some of its members. He was thunderstruck when told that one of them could hit pennies when thrown into the air, and doubted it very much. His unfettered mind could not realize that man had so completely mastered the rifle. When "Cad" told him he had seen an Indian break twenty-nine glass balls out of a possible thirty, with a bow and arrow, he was completely carried away and his sun tanned face was over-flowed with smiles. But when another statement was made that a white man with a rifle had broken every one of the thirty balls, Shopengance was shocked and reports from Grayling says he has not yet recovered. — B. C. Tribune.

Lumbering.
We have made some inquiries about the lumbering operations to be carried on in this vicinity this winter, with the following results:

Salling, Hanson & Co. will carry over about 2,000,000 feet of logs, now in the river, and will put in 2,000,000 feet for the mill here, at their railroad camp, and bring 800,000 by rail from Forest, being cut by P. Valentine. They will put 2,000,000 feet in the North Branch from their camp in 27 n. 1 w. and 3,000,000 feet into the Mauntee, for Denney Simpson & Co., and 2,000,000 feet from the upper camp in charge of A. Slaght, will go into the Mauntee.

H. Mantz & Bro. will put in 4,000,000 feet for Salling, Hanson & Co., on their contract with Engleman of Mapistee, and 2,000,000 on their own account for the same party. S. Babcock & Co. will bank 2,000,000 at Portage Lake.

Blodgett & Byrne will bank about 25,000,000 into Muskegon waters. The Crawford and Mauntee River railroad Company is located and in full blast. They will put 6,000,000 feet in to the Mauntee for the Mauntee Lumber Co.

Mike Langhrey has just completed arrangements with Jonathan Boyce to put 3,500,000 feet of logs into Higgins lake, the cut to go over John Murray's new logging railroad.

John Langhrey will bank 500,000 feet along Houghton Lake, the coming winter.

R. Geel, has begun a job of banking 10,000,000 feet of logs on the main stream of the Au Sable river for the Moore Lumber Co. of Bay City.

Edward Nelson, supervisor of Rosecommon township, has taken a job of banking 2,000,000 feet of logs for the S. C. Hall Lumber Co. of Muskegon.

John Murray will bank about 10,000,000 feet along Higgins and Houghton-Lake tributaries.

The Rosecommon Lumber Co. will bank 25,000,000 feet over their logging railroad along Houghton Lake.

R. E. Cade & Son are operating near Otsego Lake this winter. They will bank five or six million feet, white pine mostly.

NEWS CONDENSED.

Condensed Record of the Week.

EASTERN.

Boston, Aug. 20, 1902. A half a dozen of his gang of counterfeiters, who for years have been operating in various parts of the country, have been sentenced at Pittsburgh, to terms in the penitentiary.

Emory Thayer, who resided near Hamilton Station, N. Y., was arrested at night by burglars, and in attempting to grapple with one of the robbers, Thayer was shot dead.

Stephen MacPherson (colored) at Philadelphia attacked with a hatchet Robert J. Cook, Treasurer of the Free Company, fracturing his skull. The victim, who had been for several years captain and trainer of Yale College crews, had secured MacPherson for permitting his escape.

Noah Porter has tendered his resignation as President of Yale College, to take effect at the next commencement. He has held the position since 1871.

The fall of a horse on the Jerome Park track, New York, caused three others, with their jockeys, to tumble over her. The horse broke down, was killed and a rider named Porter fatally injured.

In the Grand Street Museum at Brooklyn, the elephant, which had on previous occasions effected a great escape from the lion, burst his shackles and made an onset on the lion's cage. The latter beast seized the elephant's trunk and a fierce fight resulted, the elephant being finally got under control by the keepers, but not until he had smashed both tusks and suffered lacerations of the head. One of the lion's legs broken, and Keeper Goodwin is confined to his bed by a bruise which he received during the encounter.

Gen. George B. McClellan died quite suddenly, of pneumonia, of the heart, at his residence on Orange Mountain, New Jersey, in his 69th year. He was born in Philadelphia, graduated at West Point, served throughout the Mexican war, and in 1857 resigned from the army to become Chief Engineer of the Illinois Central Road.

At the outbreak of the rebellion he was commissioned Major General of Ohio volunteers, and on the retirement of Gen. Scott, given command of the army of the United States. In 1864 he was the Democratic nominee for President, and in 1877 he became Governor of New Jersey. He declined the Russian mission when tendered by President Cleveland, and was about to be offered a place on the Civil Service Commission.

About $4,000 was realized at the sale of the theatrical effects of John McCullough in New York. The crown worn by Macready was purchased for Mary Anderson. The exclusive right to "The Gladiator" brought $1,500. A dagger presented by Salvini sold for $150.

By the explosion of a steam drum on Twenty-sixth street in New York in number of girls employed in the plant were horribly scalded. The accident, resulted from repairs made being of a temporary nature.

WESTERN.

A frightful accident is reported from East Saginaw, Mich., the particulars of which are contained in the following dispatch from that city: "A fire broke out on the tug 'C. McMillan,' lying at the dock about two hundred feet south of Genesee avenue bridge, and a large number of persons rushed upon the bridge to witness the fire. The tug was open to let the fire tug through, and a moment later a portion of its foot-walk of the bridge gave away with a crash, precipitating forty to sixty people into the swift current of the river, which is fifteen feet deep. The night was dark and no light came from the tug, and the people, struggling and shouting in the water and the broken debris of the bridge made a scene that baffles description. As quickly as possible help was obtained, row-boats manned, boards and planks thrown out, and the work of picking up commenced. Only one drowning was reported on the bridge, but a supply sent down from the tugboat was put to use as soon as possible. The current is very strong, and many of those picked up had drifted some distance down stream. A number of those rescued were more or less injured. Two bodies have been recovered, and a half-dozen others are still missing. One person, who was rescued at the time of the mishap, will die from injuries sustained."

Mormon missionaries continue to make their appearance in Central Illinois. They travel in pairs, and appear to be charitable for substance.

A dispatch from Wellington, Kan., says: "The boomers have begun operations with even more determination and vigor than when they were first started. Yesterday morning, the day announced for the beginning of the campaign, which promises so much for the near future, covered wagons and covered buggies, carriages, and 'scooters,' filled with the families of the eager yet itinerant boomers, could be seen in droves and numbered by the score. Today the crowd has been supplemented by hundreds more, all with sails set for the happy, cherished spot called Oklahoma. From the Arkansas to the boomers and their equipment one would imagine they are determined to 'light it out on this line if it takes all summer.' This, in short, is the spirit displayed by several men who were interviewed while passing through the city."

Treasurer Abbott of the Wisconsin Central road, announces that the Great Western terminal scheme at Chicago will be carried out, at an expense of about $5,000,000.

A Chicago "drummer" named Maxwell, while eating oysters at Lafayette, Ind., discovered a pearl of the alleged value of $500.

A sand-screw operating at Milwaukee found the anchor chain of the steamer Sabatogo, which was sunk in a hurricane thirty years ago.

A snake of prodigious size was seen in Mount Lake, near Lakeland, Ind., by two gentlemen, whose trustworthiness is undoubted. The presence of the monster reptile in the lake has for a long time been asserted, but received as little credit as do sea-serpent stories.

George Miller, the first murderer legally executed in Dakota, was hanged at Grand Forks, life not being pronounced extinct until after the expiration of 23 minutes.

William Haxey was hanged at Paragould, Ark., for the murder of John Sellers a year ago.

SOUTHERN.

John Thompson, a murderer, was taken from jail at Kingston, Tenn., and hanged by a mob.

The Governor of Arkansas has grown weary of having prisoners crisscrossed by mobs in Pike county, and has offered rewards for the capture of the persons who have twice burned the wooden jail.

The wholesale and retail grocery business at Augusta, Ga., having been monopolized by Chinamen, the citizens are petitioning the Council to devise means to stop the yellow tide of immigration.

The assignment of Jacob Kiln, manufacturer and wholesale dealer in jeans clothing at Louisville, is announced, with liabilities of about $20,000.

A rainstorm of eighteen hours' duration caused floods in the Shenandoah Valley, Va., more water falling than in the two previous years. Near Lexington a trolley collapsed under a train, the engineer and fireman being killed, but the passengers escaped.

Washington on the Baltimore and Ohio Road interfered with the passage of trains.

WASHINGTON.

A decision made by Commissioner Sparks restores to the public domain a tract in California claimed by the Atlantic and Pacific Road equal in size to the State of Massachusetts.

Secretary Lamar and the Commissioner of Patents will sit as a board to hear arguments of representatives of the Pan-Electric Telephone Company, who petition that the name of the United States may be used to bring suit to annul the Bell telephone patent.

POLITICAL.

The Louisville Courier-Journal publishes a long interview with Senator Beck on the Johnson-Grant-Dewey matter. Mr. Beck was a Representative from Kentucky in Congress during Johnson's impeachment, and all of his recollections are contrary to the theories of Mr. Dewey. In regard to Johnson's imbrigo with Grant about the Stanton matter, Mr. Beck says the President gave him a letter from Gen. Sherman, which, together with his own, and Gen. Grant's admissions, proved as clear as daylight that Grant had agreed to turn the War Department over to him, and not vice versa, as Mr. Dewey claims.
